New Hampshire Team Loses Before
Huge Carnival Crowd—Make
Brilliant Comeback In Second
Half—Makofski and Eddy
High Scorers

The varsity basketball team took its third defeat of the season at the hands of the powerful Connecticut Aggies quintet by the score of 33-21, before a large carnival crowd Saturday night at the big gym. Cotton and Taylor were the high scorers for New Hampshire. Captain Makofski, Eddy and Scofield starred for the Nutmeggers in their slashing attack.

The game started off with a bang, both sides scoring in the opening minutes of play. The slippery condition of the floor hindered the blue and white team from starting a fast passing game. The Connecticut five took advantage of the four-man defense of the Granite Staters, sweeping down the floor with only the veteran guard, Nicora, to ward off the attack. Scofield of the visiting team caged three long shots from beyond the foul line. New Hampshire had tough luck on their under-the-basket attempts, missing enough to win the game. The first half ended in favor of the Connecticut basketekers, 18-7.

Coach Cowell's charges came back in the second half to make a strong attempt to overcome the lead of their opponents. Cotton dribbled quickly through the Connecticut defense to score two baskets. Taylor stood on the foul line and dropped one in over the heads of the stalwart Nutmeg guards. Craig caught the opposing team up under their own goal and tossed in a basket on a long pass from Cotton, who had taken the ball off the Aggies' backboard. Connecticut called time out to reorganize their defense against the increasing scoring power of the New Hampshire team. The attack was short-lived,

Varsity and Frosh
Teams Go to Maine

Captain Cotton to Lead Blue and White Team Against Maine at Orono—Freshmen to play Coburn Classical and Maine
Yearlings

Both varsity and freshmen basketball teams get away this week-end for their invasion of the Maine courts. The frosh play Coburn Classical at Waterville, on Friday night, and then go on to Orono with the varsity to encounter the Maine yearlings in a preliminary game to the Maine-New Hampshire varsity contest. Both squads will return from Bangor, Sunday night.

In New Hampshire's opening game Maine was beaten by a 29-13 score. The blue and white should gain another decision over the Pine Tree Staters on the strength of the contests played since the early season game. Maine lost both games to Coach Cowell's team last year. New Hampshire's position in the basketball conference depends on this game, for Connecticut has defeated both teams.

The frosh five has been beaten by both of its Maine opponents, Coburn barely nosing them out, 20-19, on the local floor. The Maine 1929 team were victorious over Coach Fernald's charges by a 24-12 score. The freshmen have showed a complete reversal of form since the early contests, which may leave the outcome of the game in doubt at Orono. The weak center position has been filled by the big rangey Landauer. Clement has improved in his shooting and passing.

Students Vote for Wildcat as Mascot

Ballot Taken During Convocation
Period—Bull Receives Only One Hundred Votes Less Than Wildcat—Result of Several Months' Campaign

The Wildcat reigns in favor as the official mascot of the University, as a result of the ballot of the student body taken during the regular Convocation period yesterday afternoon. The Bull was a close second being less than one hundred votes behind the favored mascot.

The exact count of the balloting was as follows: Wildcats, 342; Bulls, 253; Huskies, 81; Wolves, 27; and Eagles, 23. Votes were cast for the Hawk, Caterpillar, Fleec, and the Mustang. Strange as it may seem, one vote was polled for the favored Co-eds. Some of the students, 14 in number, were in favor of having no mascot chosen.

The campaign for choosing an official mascot has been going on for several months. Letters from alumni, students, and friends of the University have been published in an effort to choose a real mascot that will be characteristic of the college and its representatives. One of the organizations whose decision swayed the sentiment of many was the N. H. Club, which is composed solely of men who have earned their letters in some form of athletics during their attendance at the University.

Yesterday's vote is not final as there are many votes from the alumni which have not yet been counted. The final results will be published in THE NEW HAMPSHIRE next week.

High School Committee
Has Arranged Conference

The committee on Closer Relations with Secondary Schools has had several meetings and has made arrangements for a conference. The purpose of this conference is to call together teachers of mathematics and science in junior and senior high schools of the state. This meeting will be followed by other conferences in languages and history, social science and English.

Co-ed Chosen as Queen of N. H. Winter Carnival

Miss Esther Robeck, '28, Portsmouth, N. H., was chosen Queen of the Carnival, Friday evening, Feb. 12. She wore an old fashioned dress of cerise taffeta edged with deep lace. After the decision of the judges, Miss Robeck was presented with a silver loving-cup, and a large bunch of red tea roses.

Student Body Helps to Clean University Pond

The student body co-operated in thoroughly cleaning the ice pond last Thursday, thus assuring its use for the carnival events. The zealous attitude of the students towards making the carnival a success accounted for their difficult undertaking. Early in the morning it seemed almost impossible to complete the work in such a limited time but by six o'clock the ice was cleaned, swept and flooded.

The snow taken from the ice was built into igloos, walls, and other figures which added much to the decorations. Mr. Schram and the art students built a large lion at the entrance to the pond. As additional decorations, fraternity men brought small pine and birch trees which they placed among the snow structures, giving the whole scene a contrasted beauty of green, gray and white.

"The Whole Town's Talking" Nears Eve of Completion

Plays Here March 3 and 4

New Production to Be Taken to Manchester and Concord if Satisfactory
Arrangements Can Be Made

Mask and Dagger's second production for this year will be presented at the Community House on the evenings of March third and fourth, when John Emerson's farce comedy, "The Whole Town's Talking," will be shown. The play will also be shown in Concord the same week, under the auspices of the Concord Alumni and the College Women's Club, the proceeds going toward scholarships for New Hampshire students. This is a continuation of last year's policy when "Grumpy" was played in Concord with Melville Taylor, '27, in the title role. The venture proved most successful and it is hoped that the policy can be expanded in the future, so that various alumni groups in the larger towns and cities of the state may regard the visits of Mask and Dagger as a profitable source of revenue for carrying out their plans for aiding the student body. "The Whole Town's Talking" will be produced in Manchester a few days later if satisfactory arrangements can be made. Celia Williams, Marjorie Dahlberg, Furio Abbiatti and John Fleming play the leading parts in the play.

A committee was elected to take charge of the play, consisting of Paul Johnson, '27, chairman; Melville Taylor, '26; and Frederic Smith, '29. The club also chose Eleanor Conant, '26, Eleanor Hunter, '27, and Annette Menard, '27, as a committee of three to look after decorations. A dance and sleigh ride is planned for some time in the near future.

Tryouts for the spring term production, "Happy-Go-Lucky," written by Ian Hay, will be held shortly. All students are eligible for positions on the cast and Professor Hennesey hopes that a large number of seniors will apply, for members of this class are shown preference over underclassmen.

Varsity Debaters
Defeat Tufts Team

Subject the League of Nations—Official
Decision to New Hampshire—
Popular Vote Favors Tufts—Mr.
Alexander Presides

Last Thursday evening, February 11, at the Community House, the New Hampshire men's debating team defeated the Tufts team on the subject: "Resolved, That the United States Should Join the League of Nations."

The New Hampshire team supporting the affirmative, consisted of Cleveland Sleeper, Paul S. Johnson and John Neville. The Tufts team, defending the negative consisted of Francis Henry Russell, Robert L. Nichols, and Alexander Sidman. Mr. Norman Alexander of the Economics Department presided.

Judge Edward H. Adams of the Municipal Court of Portsmouth gave the official decision to New Hampshire. The vote of the audience was about three to one in favor of Tufts. Judge Adams said that all of the constructive arguments were good and that it seemed to him that the force of the arguments were stronger for the affirmative.

The Tufts manager, W. N. Breckenridge, and coach, Mr. Newell C. Maynard, accompanied the team, and all were entertained at fraternities.

Congreve Hall to Hold
Valentine Dance Friday

Friday evening, February 19th, the annual house dance of Congreve Hall will be held in the form of a Valentine Dance. The chaperones are Mrs. Whitney, Mrs. Morgan, Capt. and Mrs. Pettee and Mr. and Mrs. Depew. The hall and two reception rooms will be thrown open, making plenty of room for the fifty or sixty couples who are expected.

The second floor hall will be completely disguised into an inviting rest room. The Blue Serenaders will furnish the music. Following tradition the dance will begin at seven-thirty and close at eleven.

R. O. T. C. Unit Inspected
by Col. Rush B. Wells

The first inspection of the R. O. T. C. Unit this year was held Friday, Feb. 12th, when Col. Rush B. Wells, officer-in-charge of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps, First Corps Area visited the University. He was pleased with the results of his inspection.

Sophomore Smoker
on Thursday Night

Dr. Bishop to Be the Speaker of the First Sophomore "Get-to-Gether"
This Year—Experiment in Freshman Entertainment

Corncob-pipes will rule supreme over Dunhills, Milanos and Sassienis, Thursday night, when the class of '28 will get together for an informal smoker.

Smokers of the past have been successful in achieving their purpose. A slight change of the usual Sophomore purpose will be initiated; in that freshmen will afford entertainment, but not in the usual manner. It has been customary to round up a few of the "wise" frosh to perform a few stunts, and doubtless the age old speech of: "The advantages of steam-heated sidewalks," affords ample entertainment to the upperclassmen. However, '28 will try a new experiment and obtain some of the talented freshmen, and have an entertainment of value, rather than a miniature "dog-party."

John Clark, president of the sophomore class, has charge of the affair, and has secured Mr. Bishop as the speaker of the evening. Cider and doughnuts will be served while an ample supply of tobacco will be on hand for those who deserve it.

Heavy Action
in M. I. T. Bouts

Bloomfield Back in Ring
For New Hampshire Team

Smith to See Action

Higgins, Lizio, and Sargent Have Heavy Bouts—Kwock, Ipstein, and Flynn Feature Men for Tech—
Hubbard May Not Fight

Once more the local Gym is to be the scene of a contest of fistic skill when the University boxing team will meet the M. I. T. boxers next Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Owing to the fact that last year's contest with M. I. T. resulted in a 3 to 3 draw, there is sure to be plenty of concentrated action, backed by real spirit between the two institutions.

Because of the greater experience of the majority of the Tech boxers, the visitors will have some slight advantage, but with Captain "Al" Smith, Higgins, Lizio and Joe Bloomfield in action New Hampshire has a fine chance to win a majority of the bouts.

Men who are outstanding on the M. I. T. team this year are Captain Ipstein, light weight, who will oppose "Danny" Ahearn, the local ace. Ipstein was defeated last year by "Jimmie" Boyd in a very fast bout in the 125 pound class. Kwock, the sturdy little Chinaman who fights in both the 115 pound and the 125 pound classes, will find plenty of opposition in Lizio and Higgins of those respective weights. Flynn, the Tech man who was whipped last year by "Doc" O'Gara, at 125 pounds, is fighting in the light-heavy class. He will have an extremely hard battle with "Joe" Bloomfield, who is once more in the ring for New Hampshire.

"Al" Smith will be seen in action for the first time this season. His opponent has not yet been selected, but "Al" is in the ring to win, and great things can be expected of him. Sargent, after his showing in the N. Y. U. bouts should be a winner in his class. In the unlimiteds, "Les" Hubbard is liable to be without an opponent, as Tech has never before entered a man in this class, and is at present lacking a candidate.

Entries for New Hampshire are as follows: Lizio, 115 lbs.; Higgins, 125 lbs.; Ahearn, 135 lbs.; Sargent, 145 lbs.; Bloomfield, 160 lbs.; Smith, 175 lbs.; Hubbard, unlimited.

Committee Appointed to Gain More Cooperation

President Hetzel has recently launched a campaign for creating a closer relationship between the University and the secondary schools of the State. By this campaign he plans to detect what is being done in the schools, and to gain more cooperation between secondary schools, the University and the State. A series of conferences will afford the necessary facts. President Hetzel has already appointed a committee of three: Professor Wellman, Dr. Slobin, and Mr. Morse, who are working on the problem.

Making Good at Keene

Of New Hampshire's non-grads who have transferred to the normal school at Keene, four are members of the Gamma chapter of Kappa Delta Phi, and three of them hold offices in the fraternity. These are Chris J. Agraftotis, ex-'26, president; Winston Lobdell, ex-'27, master of degrees; Joseph Woodward, literary officer, and Shirley Pollard, '21, honorary member. At a recent meeting of the chapter, Agraftotis discussed the problem of Americanization on which subject he has made several public speeches. At a recent national council banquet in Boston last month, Agraftotis presented a jeweled pin to Franklin J. Roberts, Keene faculty advisor, as a token of appreciation for his aid to the fraternity.

Book and Scroll Hold
Meeting in Congreve

The regular meeting of Book and Scroll was held in Congreve Hall on Monday night. The life and works of Christopher Morley were discussed in detail. Dr. Richards spoke on Morley's poetry. His life, essays and novels were presented by various members of the society. Refreshments were served under the supervision of Miss Mildred Partridge.

The next meeting of Book and Scroll will be held in Smith Hall, March 1.

Delegates Return from Northfield Conference

The delegates to the annual Northfield Conference this year, which was held last week-end, were Raymond Atherton, representing the "Y," and Osmond Strong of the Freshman Commission. This conference has for several years been one of the most important to which New Hampshire has sent delegates.

The Conference speaker was the Rev. Reinhold Niebuhr of Detroit, an editor of the Christian Century, one of the most brilliant speakers of the younger generation. The main theme of the conference is summed up in the question "Why Be a Christian Today?"

Blue Key to Recommend
Vote on Campus Smoking

Blue Key, the honorary senior society, has added to its list of helpful suggestions, a resolution for the betterment of the campus. It has sent to President Hetzel a recommendation that the question of smoking on campus be taken under consideration, and that balloting, or other similar means be used in deciding the matter. In debating the question it was brought up that the student body, upper classmen and all, almost totally disregard the traditional rule, and that something definite should be done, either to rigidly enforce the regulation, or to totally abolish it and establish smoking-rooms in the University buildings.

The University
Smoke

New Hampshire's ice and snow men defeated the teams of Dartmouth and Williams by a wide margin in what is considered to have been the finest carnival ever sponsored by the Granite State institution. Socially and athletically, the scheduled activities went off without a hitch. The numerous visitors were unanimous in their praise of a highly successful and enjoyable week-end. The final score of the winter sports events showed 46 points for New Hampshire, 28 for Dartmouth, and 11 for Williams.

The carnival officially started at two o'clock Friday afternoon with the ski proficiency and cross-country events and the five-mile snow-shoe race. Proctor, Dartmouth's stellar contestant, carried off the honors in the first event with Capt. Gunnar Michelsen of the Blue and White a close second. Capt. Farwell of the Green team beat "Eddie" Bruce in the one-mile race. In the snow-shoe grind "Duke" Peaslee, New Hampshire's unbeaten champion, came home an easy winner over Crofts of Williams in a new record for the course.

During the ice carnival, which featured the early evening's activities, Gilbert, a New Hampshire freshman, defeated North of Dartmouth in the figure skating contest and Tetley, Crins, and Worthen took three of the four places in the quarter mile speed skaters' dash. Cunningham of Williams finished second, and a few minutes later captured the two-mile race in a close finish over Tetley, and Lafayette of Dartmouth.

The first day's scores showed New Hampshire leading by a score of 33-19-11.

The Carnival Ball which followed the out door activities took place in the big gym, which was decorated as an ancient Chinese temple. Billy Lossez's Orchestra from Boston furnished the music for an all-nation's throng of the more hilarious characters of fiction and history. Esther Robeck, '28, of Portsmouth, was selected.

LEST WE FORGET

The whirl, the swing, the joy of Carnival has come and gone, and we have nothing left but delightful memories of the pleasant time we enjoyed during the Carnival days. We welcomed the Carnival girls who helped us have a good time and we now miss them. As we glide out of the felicitous trance, which held us spell bound over the week-end, back into the routine work of college life; its cares and diversities, shall we forget that good time? Shall we put aside all thoughts of the ecstatic joy which enraptured us, and solemnly fall in line again without a word of praise for those who made the good time possible?

Ere we forget, let us contribute a word of praise to those powers, those committees, those workers who put across the best Carnival, the first real Carnival the University has ever had. From beginning to end the program was a complete success. Not a hitch, not a delay, no unforeseen obstacles sprang up to disturb the equilibrium of the entire group who participated in the event. As one daily paper states, "The University is entitled to be in a cheerful mood over the outcome of its Winter Carnival." That, in itself, portrays the result of our sacrifices of time and labor. That is praise indeed to those who made the Carnival the success it was.

And now we will go on and interest ourselves in other good times. We will discuss the foreign tennis controversies; we will talk about the champion fiddler of New Hampshire; some of us will expostulate on the world court; others will engross themselves in their immediate studies, but not a single one of us will ever forget the time we have just had during Carnival.

And simply because we shall not forget, let us think of the future, of the possibilities we have to develop ourselves, so that we may continue to conduct successful Winter Carnivals, so that we may be deserving of those good times. President Hetzel was heartily in favor of the Carnival. His support is always forthcoming for successful organizations such as the Outing Club, which contributed chiefly to the success of the recent event. Let us make ourselves deserving of his support by grasping the many opportunities which are at hand.

The thing to do, first of all, is to get back into the running with full intent of making everything a success. Let us show the critics, who are eagerly waiting and silently watching the effect of the diversions which we have encountered, that our whole interest is not in those things which detract from the routine work of the college. Let us get back into the swing of things. And after we are back into the running, let's begin early and build up organizations as the Outing Club, that they may be assured of support before such undertakings as the recent carnival, are even planned.

Honor is always given where honor is due, and that everyone may deserve the honor that has been thrust upon the University since its recent success, everyone must come back and satisfy the critics of the beneficial effect of the diversion.

Fond memories of the Carnival will stay with us for a long time to come, and desires to enjoy another

HEAVEN

It's a little old and weatherbeaten cabin
That is built just back of where the brook begins,
And the cliff that towers half a mile above it Makes a wall that's proof against the worst of winds.

Bright tomorrow I can start once more to deepen
What to me seems best in all the world around;
That's the feeling that the woods and streams and mountains
Are the spots where peace and God are really found.

I shall jog along the trail that climbs the mountain,
Circle 'round and cross the top of Ras'b'ry Hill,
Then dip down and wade across the tiny boghole
Where in summer you can hear the whippoorwill.

Then I'll rest a bit and kind 'er take it easy
Look around to see if everything's O. K.,
Maybe some darn fool has shot my pets the squirrels
For it's quite a while that I have been away.

Then I guess perhaps I'll take the lower deer trail
And foller 'long beside my little brook;
Gee, I wonder if a single trout is left there
After all the meals I've caught with my old hook.

And then I'll come in sight of camper's heaven
The place I'm almost dying now to see,
And there I'll stay and tramp and live and let live,
My Gosh! Now don't you wish that you were me?

A. PROPER, '26.

NEW HAMPSHIRE DEBATES COLBY ON FEBRUARY 25

Federal Control of Mines to Be Subject

TICKETS ARE REDUCED

Triangular Meet Arranged With Rhode Island and Maine—Co-eds to Debate Maine and B. U.—Latter on Subject of World Court

On February 25, 8 p. m., at the Community House the New Hampshire Affirmative men's debating team will meet the Colby Negative team on the much discussed question, "Resolved, that the Federal government should own and operate the coal mines."

At the same time New Hampshire's Negative team will meet the Colby Affirmative team at Waterville, Maine, on the same subject.

The New Hampshire teams are: Affirmative, Harry Page, Paul Johnson, John Neville, and alternate, Robert Brown; negative, Robert Folsom, Lloyd Simpson, Cleveland Sleeper and alternate, Jerry Bond. Only the three speakers for the negative will actually make the trip to Waterville.

The coal question is of particular interest at this time because of the recent settlement of the long standing strike in the Pennsylvania anthracite coal fields, maintaining the existing wage basis, with the "check off" partially provided for, and a five-year contract agreed upon by both miners and operators.

Admission to the debate will be 25 cents or by signed season tickets presented by the owners. Season tickets are now reduced to 80 cents each and may be purchased at the Book-store and the two drug stores. As the season progresses these tickets will be proportionally reduced in price, so that those attending debates save money by buying season tickets early, as the tickets are good for admission to ten or a dozen debates on the campus during the year.

After the Colby dual debates the next debates scheduled are the annual triangulars with Rhode Island State and the University of Maine on March 4, a single contest debate between a New Hampshire women's team and the University of Maine in Orono, Maine, on March 5, and a debate between a New Hampshire women's team and a B. U. women's team in Boston on March 6.

New Hampshire's affirmative team, Page, Johnson and Neville, will make the trip to Orono on March 4; and the negative team, Sleeper, Simpson and Folsom will meet the Rhode Island State affirmative team in Durham on the same evening. The question will be, "Resolved, that Congress should pass uniform Federal marriage and divorce laws. Constitutionalality waived."

The New Hampshire women's team debating in Orono on March 5 will take the affirmative side of the question. "Resolved, that the Federal government should control and operate the coal mines." The girls who will make the trip are Gwendolyn Jones, Carolyn Woods, and Frances Harris.

The New Hampshire women's team debating in Boston on the affirmative side of the World Court question on March 6 are: Dorothy Davis, Katharine Flannagan, and Ruth Finn.

CLARK SCHOOL BOWS TO FROSH QUINTET

Much Improvement in Passing in the Freshmen Club—Landauer and Clement High Scorers for the Blue and White

The Clark School basketball team was decisively beaten by the blue and white freshmen, 33-18, in a contest which followed the varsity game Saturday night. Landauer and Clement scored most of the points for the frosh five. Bennett and Plinney starred for the visiting team.

The freshmen found the scoring easy against the prep school team and started rolling up scores from the opening whistle. Landauer got the tap, passing to Clement for the first score of the contest. Clark School had difficulty in getting through the defense of the yearlings and shot all of their baskets from outside the foul line. Harriman went in for Manfreda and teamed up well with Clement in scoring baskets. The passing of the freshmen was a big improvement over previous games and it looked as if they had at last struck their mid-season stride. The half closed with a 21-8 score for the frosh.

In the second half the Clark School could not score successfully against the second and third freshmen teams which entered the contest during the fourth quarter. Beck shot the only basket for the frosh subs. Playing was slower in this half because of the many sets of teams. The game ended with the third team holding a 33-18 score for the first year men.

Garlock played a strong game at Landauer's guard position, the latter moving up to the center circle. The tall tap-off man used his height to drop in three baskets when under the hoop. Bruce, as running guard, sunk two from the center floor.

SPORTISMS

"Mick" was jumping in beautiful form Saturday, and the "smiling one" ought to better the record of 122 feet for the Dartmouth jump, this coming Saturday at Hanover. He will also be jumping for the Intercollegiate Ski Championship, which he hopes to gain for the fourth consecutive time.

The relay team did the second fastest time of the evening at Portland Legion Games, last Monday evening. The Holy Cross collegians, record breakers for this distance, and running against a picked team, were the only ones to better the varsity's time.

Gilbert and Dustin in the role of "dark horses," were pleasant surprises to coach Perley. Last Saturday, the former defeated Laffey, Dartmouth star fancy skater, by several points, while the latter outran the field in the seven mile cross country skill race. These two men, along with Tetley, will make a trio hard to beat in their specialties at Hanover.

For the first time in several years not a single varsity man athlete has had to be dropped from the various squads, on account of warnings.

Duke Peaslee, "The Flying Milkman," will again run against the country's best, next week, at the Boston Legion Games. "Duke" ought to place among the first three. The fans are always assured of a good race when his name is on the entry sheet.

INTER-FRAT BOXING TOURNEY NEXT WEEK

Bouts Will Be Held on Tuesday and Thursday Nights of Coming Week—Finals on Saturday Afternoon Intra-Mural A. A. to Foster Tournament

An inter-fraternity boxing tournament will be conducted during the coming week under the auspices of the Intra-Mural Athletic Association. No men who have participated in an inter-collegiate bout during their attendance at New Hampshire will be eligible to compete in the tournament. This tourney will take the place of the novice championships which have been held in former years.

It is planned to arrange the tourney by drawing and seeding bouts to those who have shown ability in the ring in the past. This method will prevent matching of men of championship calibre in the opening bouts. The Boxing Division of the University has agreed to finance the tournament and all proceeds will go towards the support of the varsity team which has developed heavy expenses during the past season.

Points will be awarded as follows: for each participation, 1 point; for each victory, 1 point; for each championship, 5 points.

The preliminary bouts will be conducted on Tuesday and Thursday nights of next week, the finals will be held on Saturday afternoon, February 27. Entries for the contest will close at noon, February 23rd, the opening day of the preliminaries. The contestants will be weighed and examined between three and four o'clock of that afternoon.

There will be seven classes open: 115, 125, 135, 145, 160, 175 points and unlimited. An allowance of 4 lbs. leeway is given each man. Each fraternity will be allowed to enter two men in each weight. One man will be allowed to compete at two different weights but his entries will be counted in each of the classes.

A charge of ten cents will be made on Tuesday and Thursday evenings. The fee for the finals on Saturday afternoon will be twenty-five cents. Sergeant Brown will referee all bouts.

MISS HENTHORNE SPEAKS TO FRESHMAN COMMISSION

Miss Orvil Henthorne, secretary of Christian work in Durham, spoke to the Freshman Commission Thursday night, February 4, in the Community House, on her experiences in France during the World War. Miss Henthorne was overseas during the greater part of the war and was one of the two women in the United States to be awarded the Croix-de-Guerre for her work at the front. Her travels in France were extensive and she visited Rheims Cathedral and found in the ruins a piece of the carved limestone of the Cathedral made during the Middle Ages. After the war, Miss Henthorne spent three months in Germany and has many fascinating stories of her travels.

The members of last year's Freshman Commission of the Y. W. C. A. and Miss Henthorne were guests of the present Commission on a snow-shoe trip Saturday. The hike ended, after snowshoeing through the College woods, at the Cabin where the girls had a fire in readiness. About twenty girls made the trip. Lillian Ekstrom, Marjorie West, and Alice Spinney were in charge of arrangements.

Six representatives of the University of New Hampshire Y. W. C. A. will attend the college students' regional conference at Swampscott, February 26, 27, 28. The Conference, which follows the Northfield Conference, is held under the direction of the college Y. W. C. A. The girls who are going are Helen Brady, Katherine O'Kane, Emily Simmons, Esther Holt, and Anna Philbrook. Miss Henthorne will accompany the girls.

BOXERS LOSE TO N. Y. IN SEASON'S DEBUT

Higgins and Sargent Win Bouts—Close Decision Takes Victory From Lizio—Reid Injures Shoulder

Taking a 4 to 2 defeat from New York University as a start-off, the University of New Hampshire boxing team opened the 1926 season last Saturday afternoon in the Gymnasium. Owing to the fact that none of the New Hampshire entries had had no previous experience in the collegiate ring, the locals made but poor showing against the powerful New York team.

In the 115 pound class Ralph Lizio, N. H., lost a very close decision to Captain Frank of N. Y. U. Both men fought a smooth, crafty battle, being about equal in the exchanges, and well balanced in the distance fighting.

"Bill" Higgins, N. H., won the decision over Ortiz of N. Y., 125 pound, after a plucky battle, which was probably the most active of the afternoon. Ortiz had the advantage of experience, but Higgins won the fight on a display of pure fighting power and grit.

Israel of N. Y., won a technical knockout over Ahern, in spite of the plucky fight put up by the New Hampshire man in the light-weight event.

Sargent, New Hampshire novice in the welterweight class, won a well fought decision over Jack Jackman of New York. Sargent outclassed his opponent throughout the fight, in every department of the game.

Chet Cohn, N. Y. U., easily took a technical knockout over John Reid of New Hampshire in the 160 pound weight. Reid dislocated his shoulder, and was unable to continue the fight. "Les" Hubbard in the unlimited weight, lost a fierce bout to "Al" Lassman by decision. Hubbard was fairly outclassed by the aggressive big boy from New York.

The bouts were refereed by Os-theus, of Medford.

PITTSBURG BRANCH
MEETS WITH ROSS, '17

Not in Favor of Bulls Nor of Aiding the Band Uniform Fund—A Boston Baked Bean Supper Enjoyed by the Branch

A meeting of the Pittsburg branch of the Alumni Association was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Ross at Schenley Heights, Pittsburg. The meeting had been postponed, but in spite of this there was a good attendance. The crowd came early to enjoy the Boston baked bean supper, a rare thing in their part of the county.

At the business meeting the branch showed themselves decidedly opposed to the name of Bulls for the athletic teams, and proposed Huskies in its place. They also decided that the matter of paying for the band uniforms was a student obligation and that they were not in favor of aiding the fund. A committee consisting of A. F. Blake, H. I. Leavitt, and L. J. Lemieux was appointed to attend to all matters pertaining to constitutional amendments, etc. Arrangements were made for a bowling party for Feb. 7, and for a theatre party at the Davis Theatre for Feb. 26. Mr. and Mrs. Harold I. Leavitt invited the branch to meet at their home for the next business meeting, April 10.

The remainder of the evening was devoted to a bridge game. Prizes for high scores were won by Mrs. C. W. Work and C. F. Cone, for low scores by Mr. and Mrs. W. Marat.

Arrangements were made for the program which is to be broadcast at the intercollegiate smoker for alumni of colleges represented at the Schenectady works of the General Electric Co. This program will be broadcast from station WGY on Feb. 27 and Mar. 6, and it is expected that many alumni will be tuning in on this station on these two nights, as there are now 18 New Hampshire grads at the Schenectady works.

Connecticut Valley Branch Turns Out Fifty Strong to Cheer Blue and White to Victory—Lunch at Woods Hall Follows Game

No less than fifty live-wire Alumni, their wives, husbands, and friends cheered themselves hoarse as the Blue and White clad basketball team from Durham displayed their superiority over Springfield College in Springfield, Saturday night, January 30.

They came from four New England States. There were Wilfred A. (Cupe) Osgood, '14, and Russell Mears, '26, from Durham; Prof. A. R. Merrill, '04, Prof. J. A. Manter, '12, from Storrs, Conn.; Lawrence Martin, Charles W. Kimball, '25, and Lawrence S. Holland, '25, of New Haven. Mr. and Mrs. George N. Pingree, '20, Mr. and Mrs. Fred O. Chase, '10, and P. C. Brown, '21, came down from Pittsfield. Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Judkins drove down from Amherst, and Earl E. Lorden came all the way from Turners Falls, a matter of 50 miles or more each way.

Among the others were W. E. Maxwell, '25, H. M. Eastman, '14, Mildred Sanderson, '23, Mr. and Mrs. Elwin H. Forristall, '97, Harold P. Peavey, '13, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Muzzey, Sp., Mr. and Mrs. Theodore W. Stafford, '23, Elmer A. Scott, '22, Archie Hurford, '25, Henry B. Hurlin, ex-'25, Mr. and Mrs. Don Melville, both '20. These alumni, with their friends and relatives, made up the cheering section.

After the game, which was a rugged one, and one for which the team had to be fighting every minute, the group went to Woods Hall, on the Springfield College Campus, renewed acquaintances, and when the team came over, lunched. The team, manager and Coach Cowell were the guests of the local branch.

Prof. A. R. Merrill, '04, Captain Cotton of the team, "Cupe" Osgood, '14, Elwin H. Forristall, '97, and Coach William H. Cowell were called upon for remarks by Don Melville, acting as chairman in the absence of John W. Fullerton, '98, of Holyoke, president of the branch association. Following cheers for the team, the evening's festivities closed with the singing of Alma Mater.

The next meeting is expected to be at Amherst, May 29.

Here and There

Massachusetts Institute of Technology has established a new precedent when it broke through the crust of antagonism prevalent among New England colleges on the subject of smoking by women at all dances and social functions in Walker Memorial building, where the undergraduate social activities are held. The rule also applies to women guests of the men at the Institute.

Amherst College has produced 32 college professors and a larger percentage of its graduates who are on the "Who's Who in America" than any other college.

Recent faculty rulings have annoyed car-owning undergrads. A retaliatory movement is abroad. Students at Utah Agricultural College raise the question: "Should professors be allowed to drive autos?"

A professor en route home from a football game gave four students a lift. Momentarily falling asleep, he allowed the car to careen down a hill and come to a disastrous stop in a large hole at the bottom.

The four boys ask what punishment is too great for this professor who "wilfully and purposely slept, betraying the trust so sincerely placed in him by adoring students."

Defendant pleads a business meeting kept him out late the night before, but the boys insist upon an extreme penalty.

The Athletic Department of The North Carolina State College will conduct an open invitational Basketball Tournament for the high schools of the State, to be held in Frank Thompson Gymnasium on March 5 and 6.

An enrollment of fifteen constituted the first day's registration for the Short Course in Ceramics and Clayworking at the North Carolina State College of Agriculture and Engineering. Fourteen were North Carolinians, the other student was from Vermont.

Because of its increasing number of girls, the North Carolina State College may have to be organized as a real co-educational institution. This movement is favored by several professors of the campus who are graduates of co-educational institutions.

THE TECHNICIAN continues: "Doubtless an increase in members of both sexes will have a good effect on each. This would tend to eliminate certain criticisms that have been made as to State students not always making as "smart" an appearance as men of other colleges. On the whole, the co-eds will have a good influence, and it is believed that the co-eds will be beneficially influenced, too."

She: "I think you must be a wonderful basketball player."
Frog: "What makes you think so? My foot work?"
She: "No, the way you dribble your foot."

ANON.

The new Catalogue of Wesleyan University shows an enrollment of 609. Twenty-eight states, Hawaii, and four foreign countries are represented. New York leads in enrollment, with Connecticut second and New Jersey third.

College means either of two things to us. It can mean a growth and development of mind, soul and body, enabling us to become fitted for the needs of our country and for humanity. Then there is that other side—that awful fate which means miserable failure, a despondent outlook upon life, being a hindrance, rather than a good to our fellowmen.

The first comes from taking an active part in everything good and profitable that is given at V. U., such as chapel, class meetings, and last but not least, the courses of study. Also in Athletics, whether you take part in them or not, boost them. The failure comes from not being interested in anything good, always knocking the school and the faculty. A continual grouch is the worst despicable creature in the world and is to be pitied.

THE VALPARAISO TORCH.

When we have a "blue" spell, it is a good plan to stop and think of the many years of study, years of hard work, and big cash investments of which we are enjoying the benefits. It was Calvin Coolidge who remarked with great truth:

"Expenditures for education are to be looked upon as public investments. The man of trained intelligence is a public asset. The training and the intelligence may belong to him, but the results belong to us. I do not have to be an expert electrician to enjoy the convenience of the electric light, nor do I have to be a doctor to be cured when I am ill. We go forward only through the trained intelligence of individuals, but we, not the individuals, are the beneficiaries of that trained intelligence. In the very nature of things we cannot all have the training, but we can all have the benefits."

however, for the Connecticut men rolled up a winning margin in the next ten minutes of play with Makofski and Eddy doing most of the scoring. The final gun found New Hampshire on the short end of a 33-21 score.

Makofski covered his center position very effectively, allowing few passes to get by him during the game. Eddy, Connecticut's right forward, was tied with his captain in scoring five baskets. He had an unenviable knack of getting behind the New Hampshire guards and then rushing out to receive a short pass from outside the defense.

Towards the last of the contest Coach Cowell sent in Smith, Bridge, and Davis to replace the veteran forward line. The new men performed well for the short time that they were in the game. Nicora played his usual hard game at guard, winning the applause of the crowd for his skillful work in front of the New Hampshire basket. Kelsea, at the other guard position, also had a strenuous workout.

"DANCE MADNESS" CENTERS
AROUND GAY PARIS LIFE

Robert Z. Leonard interviewed all the beautiful French types in Hollywood to appear in the theatre sequence of his production of "Dance Madness," the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture playing at the Franklin theatre today with Claire Windsor and Conrad Nagel in the leading roles.

One of the features of the "Folies-Parisiennes," which is included in "Dance Madness," is a group of eight beautiful girls, supposedly the most lovely in Paris, and no end of care was taken in their selection.

"Dance Madness" is a sophisticated farce-comedy, written by S. J. Kaufman. The adaptation was done by Alice D. G. Miller and Federica Sagor. Supporting roles are played by Douglas Gilmore, Hedda Hopper and Mario Carillo.

RELAY TEAM MEETS FINAL OPPONENT NEXT MONDAY

Coach Paul Sweet will race his Varsity Relay team against the crack Bowdoin College team at the American Legion games Monday afternoon, Feb. 22, at the Boston arena.

This will be the third and last meet of the season for the New Hampshire team and will test the team's strength to the utmost. Bowdoin has established a fine record this season although its time at the Portland Meet was slightly greater than New Hampshire's time on the same track.

When it's a rainy night—and with three crafty bridge players your luck is running wild—have a Camel!

WHEN the dark skies are pouring rain outside. And fickle fate deals you hands at bridge that you play with consummate skill—have a Camel!

For Camel is the silent partner that helps every deserving player win his game. Camels never hurt or tire the taste, never leave a trace of cigaretty after-taste. Regardless of the gold you spend, you'll never get choicer tobaccos than those rolled into Camels.

So this evening as you ply your unerring skill, evoke then the mellowest fragrance that ever came from a cigarette.

Have a Camel!

Camels represent the utmost in cigarette quality. The choice of Turkish and Domestic tobaccos are blended into Camels by master blenders and the finest of French cigarette paper is made especially for them. Into this one brand is concentrated all of the knowledge, all of the skill of the world's largest organization of expert tobacco men.

VOCATIONAL SUNDAY
PLANNED BY Y. M.-Y. W.New Activity of Christian Associations — Experts in Different Professions and Occupations
Will be Present for Talks and Interviews"After College What?" is the theme chosen by the Christian Associations for the vocational Sunday which they are planning for March seventh, at the Community House, and which has as its object the helping of students to choose a life work.A joint committee of the Y. M. and Y. W. is now arranging a day when leaders in various fields of work will be on the campus; to speak at the Community House in the morning.
They will interview students during the day. In this way, students who are perplexed as to what they shall do after leaving college will be enabled to hear and talk with successful men in different vocations.As far as time and money on hand allow, all the major occupations will be represented. At present correspondence is being held with representatives of the following vocations:
business and industry, education, law,
medicine, social service, the ministry, and missions, and rural occupations.The committees in charge are composed of the Misses Emily Simmons, Dorothy Wilson, Esther Holt, Helen Stevens, and Eleanor Wellman from the Y. W. C. A.; and Raymond Atherton, Wallace Weare, Richard Long-
ley, C. N. Elliott, Richard Lord, Walter Evans, and John True from the Y. M. C. A.Vocational guidance is one of the newer fields of education, and is still in its early development. The Y. M.
C. A. has been one of its most interested sponsors, since the idea embraces a new opportunity to help youth; and so it is not surprising that the Associations at this University should be eager to commence a program of vocational guidance.FRATERNITY HOUSES HOLD

Lead National League—A. T. O.'s
Head the American LeagueThe four games played in the inter fraternity hockey league shows the Theta Chi's continuing their winning streak. The S. A. E.'s gave the Mad-bury Road boys some difficulty but the Theta Kappa Phi team offered little competition. The Lambda Chi team by their victory over the Delta Pi's make an interesting game out of the coming Theta Chi contest. Due to the stormy weather a number of games in the American league have been postponed. In the latter league the Phi Delta Upsilon game with the Alpha Rho was close, but neither team showed championship calibre.Theta Chi 10 0 Theta Kappa Phi
